

America's street smart fleet solution.

National solutions. Local locations.

Fleets of all sizes trust MAACO's reputation for craftsmanship, speed and economy. MAACO stands behind its work, 100%. There are no management fees. And with centers coast-to-coast, there's always a MAACO facility close by no matter where your vehicles are. Here's who chooses MAACO, with beautiful results.

- Car rental and leasing companies
- Government and municipal agencies
- Overnight delivery services
- Food and beverage companies
- Manufacturers and corporations
- National retailers
- Cable and telecommunications providers
- Fleet management companies.

With today's fleet budgets under increasing pressure, it just makes sense to leverage MAACO's national presence and savings, and the convenience of one source, one call, one bill. Never again will you have to deal with hundreds of individuals, shops and invoices. MAACO's quality standards mean better looking vehicles and a better return on your fleet investment.

Make MAACO your complete fleet resource. Call Patrick Donohue, Director of MAACO Fleet Sales, at 610-337-6104. He'll arrange a brief visit and prepare a comprehensive proposal for your review with no obligation.

accident management

Are you ready to drive costs down?

You may manage hundreds or thousands of fleet vehicles. But controlling repair costs is your biggest headache. Plus, your organization wants faster turnaround and quality work.

MAACO puts you in control of it all. With 30 to 40% savings compared to independent automotive body repair shops*. Fast in-out service, matching your need for speed getting vehicles back on the road. And with seamless repairs from quality-driven collision, paint and body specialists. MAACO repairs more than a million vehicles annually, and 1 out of 4 is a fleet vehicle.

Bottom line: we'll help keep your fleet looking great while adhering to your established repair standards and budgetary parameters. And that reflects beautifully on you.

Shouldn't your off-lease cars be worth more?

MAACO understands your decision process when reselling cars that are coming off lease. Premium vehicles deserve "like-new" appearance or structural repairs so they earn you top dollar at auction. Older or lower-value lease vehicles require only minimal investment for quick sale.

With MAACO, you can tailor the repair investment to the vehicle's value. We'll help you select the most cost-efficient solution so you achieve maximum profit at sale, no matter what the vehicle's value.

Remarketing Services

- Seamless repairs on premium vehicles
- Only-necessary repairs on lower value vehicles
- Skilled collision experts, body specialists and painters
- Full-size paint booths and drying enclosures
- Factory color match paint system
- Top quality urethane and acrylic paints

You want it when? Done!

If your vehicle isn't moving, it isn't making money. A car could languish for days at an independent body shop. But when MAACO has your vehicle it's being worked on — not sitting. Our flexible in-out scheduling and quality control enable us to turn around repairs nearly 25% faster than independent auto body repair shops*. So you keep more of your fleet on the street.
